Martin Luther and the Nazis: The Purim Connection

YANKY FACHLER

Chair, Jewish Historical Society of Ireland

	Many Nazi leaders claimed that their ideas were influenced by Martin Luther. At the Nuremberg War Trials, Streicher declared that if he is guilty, Martin Luther should also be in the dock. In addition to the incendiary anti-Semitic language shared by Luther and the Nazi propaganda machine, there was another link between Luther and the Nazis. In this talk, Yanky Fachler explores the bizarre Purim connection.
